About Us

Bernard Herzberg founded our firm in the early 1950s. He was joined by Aubrey Stupel in 1968 and later by Michael Berman in 1980. Aubrey Stupel and Michael Berman commenced the partnership of Stupel & Berman in 1982.

Since our humble beginnings, we have grown the company into a significant player in the legal fraternity. Our success lies within our people and our strong philosophy of building strong, lasting partnerships with our many clients.

Stupel & Berman Inc. is proud of its South African heritage and embraces the changes in the socio-economic landscape. We comply with the spirit of the Broad-Based Black Economic Empowerment Act and the Financial Sector Charter. Our company is a Level One BBBEE Contributor.

This is reflective of the company directorship, as well as in our highly qualified and experienced staff complement.

We believe in continually improving our efficiencies to the benefit of our clients, and we have invested in the latest relevant technology and processes. This means we can assist our clients far more efficiently and cost-effectively.
